

SCREEN LEGENDS... Keith Brown (left) from East of England Tourism gets together with Paul Haynes from Stansted Airport. The tourism board was promoting its online guide to TV and film locations in the east of England, Scene on Screen. (See page 13 for more information on the launch)

RUGBY ROUND-UP... Tourism New Zealand has announced its 20 official travel agents (OTAs) for Rugby World Cup 2011 in New Zealand. Pictured marking the announcement are, from the left: George Hickton, Tourism New Zealand; David Hall, Gullivers Sports Travel and Sean Fitzpatrick, former All Blacks rugby captain.

LIVING THE DREAM... agents visiting the Utah stand tried their luck at winning their own dream catcher following the completion of the Travel Uni Training Programme. Pictured from the left are: Kaitlin Eskelson, Raelene Davis, Patti Denny, Charlie DeLorme, Joyce Kelly and Kathi Dysert with Yolanda Fletcher from Cellet Travel Services.

THE X-TRA FACTOR... X Factor judge Dannii Minogue visited the Etihad Airways stand to announce winners of the prize draw for tickets to the X Factor final on December 12, donated by Etihad. Pictured with Dannii are Clive Wratton (left) and Danny Barranger from Etihad Airways.

